

Documents that CANNOT be written or signed electronically

As always there are rules to electronic documents. There are several documents that cannot be written nor signed electronically. They are:

- Wills
- Leases
- Deeds
- Adoption papers

- Divorce papers
- CourtOrders
- Notices of termination of (leases, utility, ect.)
- Notice of repossessions
- Notice of foreclosure

- Notice of eviction
- Product recall notices

Work Cited

Use of Electronic Signatures and Contracts. <http://smallbusiness.findlaw.com/business-operations/small-business-internet/internet-electronic-signatures%281%29.html>

Navigation

Importance of E-Documents and E-Signatures

Electronic Document & Electronic Signatures

Examples of E-Signatures

Documents that CANNOT be written or signed electronically

International & Long Distance Transactions

Relevant Cases

